Thomas Cahill talks about Mysteries of the Middle Ages: The Rise of Feminism, Science, and Art from the Cults of Catholic Europe. Through visits to the great cities of Europe—Renaissance Rome, the Paris of Peter Abelard and Thomas Aquinas, the center of scientific study at Oxford, and the incomparable Florence of Dante and Giotto—Cahill brilliantly captures the spirit of knowledge, experimentation and pageantry that built the foundations for the modern world. Cahill is the author of Desire of the Everlasting Hills and How the Irish Saved Civilization.
