

— ATTENTION, SCHOLARS —
SERVICES available at
THE TEACHING AND LEARNING CENTER (TLC)

What is the TLC?

The Teaching and Learning Center (TLC) is an academic resource for all Dominican students. It houses eight computers, four tutoring carrels, a conference area for group tutoring, and many other resources to help you achieve your academic goals.

What can you do at the TLC?

- < Meet with your tutor
- < Access online resources from a computer
- < Take a placement test
- < Access CBEST, CSET, and RICA test prep for teachers
- < Attend an academic excellence workshop
- < Check out instructional books or videos
- < Obtain free math, writing, and reading handouts (and more)

What must you do elsewhere?

- < Receive extensive Internet research assistance (library)
- < Print (library)
- < Attend an MLA/APA workshop or a library research strategies workshop (library)
- < Receive editing/proofreading assistance (hire a professional)
- < Shoot hoops (Conlan Rec Center)

Where is the TLC?

Bertrand 110 (across from the Academic Advising and Support Center)

What are the TLC's hours?

M: 9:00 - 6:00; Tu-Th: 9:00 - 9:00; F: 9:00 - 5:00; and by appointment

How can you sign up for a tutor?

Visit Chrisa Hotchkiss in Bertrand 110 or call 415/257-0153.

How can you reach someone at the TLC?

Stop by Bertrand 110 or call Chrisa Hotchkiss at 415/257-0153.

