

DOMINICAN ACADEMIC SCHOLARS PROGRAM NOMINATION FORM

This form must be typed. Handwritten materials will be returned.

Faculty Mentor: You may nominate a student who has completed an outstanding academic undertaking. The project may be scholarship (a term paper or thesis), empirical research, or creative activity. Performances are eligible but must be limited to a 15-minute time period.

It is expected that the nomination will be a joint activity of mentor and student and that the student will provide the project description requested below.

Name of Nominee:

E-mail Address of Nominee:

Local Mailing Address:

Name of Faculty Mentor:

Relationship to nominee (check all that apply):

- Teacher of class where project was completed
- Department chair
- Academic advisor
- Thesis supervisor
- Other

Title of Project:

Class: frosh sophomore junior senior

Type of Presentation:

- PowerPoint
- Non-PowerPoint
- Performance
- Art Type of artwork

Short Description of Project. In no more than 300 words, describe the nature of your research/scholarship/creative activity. Writing quality and clarity are selection criteria. (Please note: Although a publishable abstract of the project must be submitted by April 6, 2007, the description below should be in more conversational English and should outline the scope of the project for the selection committee.)

I hereby nominate _____ as a Dominican Academic Scholar and agree to work with this student in preparing a publishable abstract and in rehearsing a professional, timed, oral presentation.

Faculty Signature: _____ Date: _____

I agree to work with my faculty mentor, attend the oral presentation workshop, submit a professional abstract, if applicable, by April 6, and provide a 15 minute presentation (10 minute talk + 5 minutes Q and A) at the time assigned during the April Dominican Academic Showcase.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Submit 6 copies of this application to the Provost's Office by March 15.

Applications which are not correctly completed or do not have the correct number of copies will be returned.

Address questions to:

Sherry Volk, Ph.D.

Associate Vice President for Academic Affairs

415-485-3278 or volk@dominican.edu