Equity & Parity ~ Self-Sufficiency ~ Leadership ~ Access to Resources

The purpose of the Marin Women's Commission is to advocate for equity & parity, self-sufficiency, leadership, access to resources and quality of life for Marin County women at all stages of life.

How do women become empowered to make change in their Community? How can we redefine "leadership" so that it includes all women? How does Leadership fit into your personal and professional lives? What can you do to make an impact? JOIN US to explore these questions and more with the help of our Keynote Speakers, U.S. Congresswoman Lynn Woolsey and Marin County Supervisor Susan Adams.

The partnership of the Marin Women's Commission with Dominican University of California is guided by the mutual commitment that Women's Leadership effectively impacts systems' change so that Women of all ages are Empowered, Educated and Engaged in the Community.
