

Approved Equivalent Courses at Other Institutions

Sonoma State University

(Equivalent Courses for Intersession, Spring, and Summer 2003)

Intersession program: Jan 6 - 24

PSY 461 Personality

Prerequisite: junior standing

Instructor: Gerryann Olsen, Ph.D.

1047 3 units $486 9am-12:15pm; Stevenson Hall 3046

Summer Sessions are:

June 2-19, 12 meetings MTWTH

PSY 461 Personality

Prerequisite: junior standing

Instructor: Gerryann Olsen, Ph.D.

1047 3 units $486 8:45am-12:30pm; Stevenson Hall 3046

Cross-Cultural Awareness in Counseling (Graduate)

A course dealing with the impact of racism and sexism on the mental health of minority groups and the study of counseling strategies with minority clients. The goal of this is to enhance pluralistic thinking in counseling; specifically, students increase their awareness of, and sensitivity to, culturally different groups. Rima Meehan, M.A., is Assistant Professor in the Counseling Department at SSU.

12 mtgs: MTWTH, June 23-July 10, 9am-12:45pm

Library, Sheppard Elementary School, 1777 West Avenue, Santa Rosa

COUN s570 94454-101 3 units $480

COUN s570 94454-101 3 units Fee

Introduction to Chemical Dependency Counseling (Graduate)

This course fulfills the requirement for training in Chemical Dependency Counseling for the State Board of Behavioral Science Examiners as required for MFT and LCSW licensure, State of California. Tom Newell, M.A., MFT, is Counseling Program Manager for Sonoma County Alcohol and Drug Services. He has worked in the chemical dependency field for 23 years in inpatient and outpatient settings as both psychotherapist and program manager. He remains in private practice in Sebastopol.

2 mtgs: Sat, July 12 & 19, 9am-5pm

Stevenson Hall 3008

COUN S581 90350-101 1 unit $162