Your financial aid application was selected for review in a process called "Verification." In this process, the Financial Aid Office at Dominican University of California must compare information from your FAFSA with signed copies of your and your parent's 2007 Federal tax forms, and other financial documents. Dominican is required by law to ask for and receive this information before awarding Federal aid. If there are any differences between your FAFSA information and your financial documents, the Financial Aid Office will send any required corrections electronically to the FAFSA processor to have your information reprocessed. Schools must review the requested information, under the financial aid program rules (34 CFR, Part 668).
