

	LEARNING OUTCOMES: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Demonstrate behaviors of mutual respect2. Positively contribute to their community3. Work to overcome challenges4. Display life skills5. Demonstrate behaviors that positively contribute to a sustainable environment6. Exhibit pride in Dominican University of California CORE VALUES: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● The Dominican Ideals (community, reflection, study, service)● The development of relational abilities to be a positive contributors to the surrounding community● Integration of body, mind, and spirit to enable the “whole” person SPECIFIC VALUES: <ul style="list-style-type: none">● The richness of the Dominican spirit and traditions● Enriching the development of the student experience● Enriching the development of the institutional experience● Providing “transformative” moments for our students
--	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--	--