

STUDENT APPLICATION FORM

Please return in time for application deadline of Friday, June 14, 2019.

This application will be considered complete and ready for evaluation only after we receive all supporting documents, including the Teacher Recommendation Form and student's sample of work. To ensure your child is given consideration for his/her class of choice, we encourage early submission of the application package. Program acceptance and class preference are granted in order of receipt.

Participants who have attended Summer Odyssey for two or more years need not submit test scores, Teacher Recommendation Form, or a sample of work.

III. TEACHER RECOMMENDATION FORM

Please have a teacher of your choice complete the enclosed Teacher Recommendation Form. The teacher must have taught in an academic subject (e.g., mathematics, science, or language arts), but this teacher need not have taught the student the same subject area as the appropriate class listed above. The teacher must complete the form and return it directly to Dominican University of California. Applications will not be considered complete and ready for evaluation until we have received the Teacher Recommendation Form from your teacher.

IV. SAMPLE OF WORK

Submit a piece of work your child has completed within the past year and of which you are especially proud. You may submit an essay, story, or project in any subject (such as social studies, language arts, science, or art). The product you submit need not be in the same subject area as your child's preferred class. We cannot return your work, so please submit clear photocopies of your originals if necessary.

V. ACHIEVEMENT TEST INFORMATION

If your child is entering first, second, or third grade, achievement test information is not required.

Submit a photocopy of your child's test scores, including national percentile scores, along with your Student Application Form package. If you don't have a copy of your child's test scores, submit the following to your school's administrative personnel to complete on your behalf and affix the school stamp for verification.

If your child has never taken an Achievement Test, or has not taken one in the past three years, submit the following to your school's administrative personnel requesting that they sign and affix the school stamp for verification.
