

Academic Year: 2021-2022

A bank statement or letter issued by the bank with the account holder's name, currency type and account type in English should be provided. The document must be dated within 6 months of the program start date, and should show the minimum (or more) funding required by your graduate program for the first year of studies.

Valid account types include checking accounts, savings accounts, time deposits, certificates of deposit (CDs), money market accounts and cash in investment accounts. Funds in stocks/investments, bonds, lines of credit, real property or statements of income are not accepted.

Scholarship letters are also accepted from governments and organizations. The letter must be in English and indicate the amount of funds awarded.

If you have a sponsor, they must provide the signed Affidavit of Financial Support for you to submit. Their name and signature on the Affidavit of Support need to be in English characters with the date. Send this Affidavit of Support, along with their bank documents, to the admissions department.

If you plan to bring dependents with you who will need an F-2 visa, please provide additional proof of funding to cover their expenses. If you were awarded a scholarship that includes funding for your dependents, please have them listed on the scholarship letter. For a 9-month program, please add an additional $4,500 per dependent adult, and for a 12-month program, please include an additional $6,000 per dependent adult. Child dependents require an additional $400 for each month of the first year of your studies.

Below are the current estimates for the first academic year of graduate programs at Dominican:

PROGRAM	FUNDING REQUIREMENT: 12 MONTHS
Master of Arts in Humanities	$44,397
Master of Science in Business Analytics	$61,067
Master of Business Administration	$69,367
Master of Science in Biological Sciences	$43,007
Master of Science in Education	$41,607